Brandon Sakbun Receives Endorsement from Humane Society Legislative Fund

On August 14, 2023-Brandon Sakbun received an endorsement from the Humane Society Legislative Fund. HSLF is a 501c(4) organization, whose primary purpose is to get political candidates supportive for animals by ensuring animals have a voice in the halls of Congress, state legislatures and in local government. The group works through educating elected officials and the public on animal welfare issues, electing humane candidates to public office, and utilizing the ballot initiative process to protect animals.

Brandon Sakbun served as an Active Duty Infantry Officer for almost five years. Brandon spent 2.5 years serving in the nations premiere raid force, the 75th Ranger Regiment and several years in the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment. Brandon continues to serve as an officer in the Indiana National Guard. Brandon currently works as substitute public teacher in the Vigo County School Corporation and holds two degrees from Indiana University.

“The endorsement from the Humane Society Legislative Fund holds a mirror to our city's own challenges and opportunities. For instance, Terre Haute faces animal control issues that have not gone unnoticed. In recent months we have seen daunting headlines of overcrowded shelters and strays on the streets.

Guided by the Humane Society Legislative Fund's values and our own determination, our campaign seeks to transform Terre Haute into a community that doesn't merely acknowledge these issues facing our furry friends but takes tangible action to overcome them.”
